Megatrends and Media, the international scientific conference held annually by the Faculty of Mass Media Communication UCM in Trnava, has become a traditional event attended and supported by renowned media theorists and researchers, as well as media professionals. The goal of the conference is to present and exchange the current knowledge and experience reflecting media, especially contemporary trends related to them (for more details, please see annotations of the individual sections).

CONFERENCE FEE:

- 150 € – a conference paper in English (these papers will be published in conference proceedings, and then submitted for evaluation to renowned international citation databases Web of Science, Scopus, ERIH PLUS, EBSCO, etc. In case of co-authorship, each co-author pays conference fee 70 € (whether attending the conference or not).
- 100 € – conference papers written in Slovak, Czech or Polish language, or conference papers submitted in different languages (to be published in standard double-blind peer reviewed conference proceedings). In case of co-authorship, each co-author pays conference fee 50 € (whether attending the conference or not).

The conference fee covers rental of the venue, printing of conference documents and publications (including double-blind peer-reviewed conference proceedings), various refreshments served throughout the event and evening banquet expenses. Please note that the fee is paid in cash, during registration procedures at the venue. In case this form of payment does not suit you, let us know while filling the registration form and do not hesitate to contact us via the conference e-mail for more information. Please note that the general conference fee does not cover lunch and accommodation fees.

CONFERENCE PUBLICATIONS:

- Conference proceedings in English submitted for evaluation to citation databases Web of Science, Scopus, ERIH PLUS, EBSCO (please note that these texts have to meet all formal, content and ethical requirements related to Anglo-Saxon academic writing; the highest quality of professional translation to English is required).
- Conference proceedings that include papers submitted by authors who wish to publish their conference contributions in Slovak, Czech, Polish or any other language than in English.

LUNCH FEES:

- 16th April 2019 = 10 €
- 17th April 2019 = 10 €

Please note that lunch fees are paid only in cash, during registration procedures at the venue. Lunch is optional; expressing your interest in having lunch is a part of the electronic application form. Other snacks and drinks served during the conference – including banquet dinner – are fully covered by the conference fee.

ACCOMMODATION:

Smolenice Castle = 35 € a night per person

(Accommodation in a single room costs 50 € a night per person)

Please note that the accommodation fee is paid in cash during registration procedures. In case you would like to use this service, please express your interest by choosing the appropriate option included in the electronic application form.

Prof. PhDr. Hana Pravdová, PhD.
Assoc. Prof. PhDr. Ján Višňovský, PhD.
PhDr. Jana Radošinská, PhD.

DISCUSSION TOPICS:

- the Universe expanding, the Earth growing smaller? Media globalization trends and their consequences in relation to national media markets,
- A Space Odyssey of media production – today's media producers and their routines, issues of seriality and media recycling. Strategies of media production. Media creativity (or its lack thereof),
- wiping stardust from our eyes (traditional journalism, online journalism, social media journalism, and other ways of disseminating news and opinions),
- crossing the Universe – cultural, technological and economic aspects of media convergence,
- seeing stars – audiovisual media production, media spectacularity and celebrity culture,
- heroes of the Universe reborn or rather remade: protagonists, narratives and storytelling modes preferred by contemporary media,
- watching skywatchers (understanding new types of media audiences, fans, social media users, and their volatile preferences),
- looking behind the gates, or issues of media ownership and media oligarchies. Media moguls and their social, cultural, political and economic influence.

Section 2
